

WHOLE NO. 420

14. A search through the journals of the House on this and previous sessions would establish the truth of this proposition: In every instance in which the interests of Upper Canada were involved the Government were able to carry an Upper Canada majority in the language of the Attorney General West.

few years ago, the minorities had been conscious and systematic. A similar state of things, but not to the same extent, was experienced last Parliament and with the special object of remedying it the Government dissolved the House and appealed to the people. In the last Parliament they had a su-ent majority of the whole representative body, but thinking it not desirable to rule contrary to the will of the people of Upper Canada, the Government appealed to the people. The result was on that issue throughout Upper Canada, that the Government was defeated and instead of an occasional majority the ple of Upper Canada returned representatives who in every instance of the slightest importance, recorded their votes in hostility to Administration. Mr. Cartier might have said last Parliament that it was doubted on this side the wishes and feeling of the people of Upper Canada lay, but after the last election there was no doubt that his Upper Canadian colleagues did not possess the confidence of the people of that section. The next position was that the patronage of the Government was dispensed in opposition to the wishes and feelings of the majority of the electors of Upper Canada. Mr. Robert Spence, with his where the coalition of 1854 would not have occurred, and Mr J. C. Morrison was unanimously defeated, showing that they had the confidence of the party whom they professed to represent in the Government. Spence, after his defeat, was immediately elected to an important office. It was sune with Mr. Morrison, who had been rejected by the electors of Ontario and Ontario and incidentally also of Niagara. Mr. W-ster who was defeated in the North Riding

 of Wellington, also received an important office
 Mr. John Hildyard Cameron, defeated
 Carleton, was appointed to take charge of Obtained prosecutions. Mr. Larwell, defeated in Kent, by a thin and Majority, received the magistracy of Kent. Mr Stephen Richardson defeated in Oxford, had the care of Criminal prosecutions in the outer circuits. Mr O'Rielly, defeated in Brant, had a similar office. The Commissions of the Peace and other appointments were also filled up contrary to wishes and feeling of the people of Upper India, not only of the Reform party, but many instances of the Conservatives also. In one case an appointment had been made even on the advice of hon. gentlemen opposed but out of personal friendship of the Minister.

the Government. The third proposition was that there were numerous instances of persons being appointed to office, who were unfit for the duties entrusted to them. He could give many instances of notorious incompetency. Even in regard to Messrs. Morrison and Spruce, it was evident that they had not confidence of the people, but on the contrary had received the condemnation of the people and therefore were unfit to be appointed important officers. Having established three propositions, it might be said that minority had not power to provide a remedy. He should should go further and suggest a only, but they had the reform thought it best simply to state the facts, leaving those who had the power to apply the remedy.

It being almost six o'clock, after which private bills would be taken up according to order, Mr. Speaker Smith suggested that the Speaker should leave the chair.

LOUIS BROGHAN and MR. GLADSTONE.—The Scotsman says:—"A very significant compliment to Mr Gladstone's nation and a very striking incident in itself, appears not to have been marked by our London contemporaries. We mean the presence of Lord Brougham within the walls of the House of Commons for the first time during nearly thirty years; and that is since he left it in 1830, to become Lord Chancellor. It is pretty well known that Lord Brougham has the House of Commons to preside over

House of Lords, with the utmost pain reluctance; that his own most earnest sister was, not to accept of offices which necessitated the abdication of his position as member for Yorkshire, and that he took possession nominally and titularly higher ofice at the most urgent entreaty and virtual mand of his party. Since his removal, he has never been known to enter an auditor within those walls which had so long echoed with his eloquence. On Friday night, for the first time, he overcame his remarkable reluctance; and then, too, for the first time, it is understood, he heard the hold unchallenged and undisputed--the great orator in the British House of Comm Lord Brougham was seen to listen intently

during the whole four hours during wh
Mr Gladstone spoke, and is known to have expressed the highest admiration of the spee hand, and handling them as though he were accustomed to it, without any outsiders, equities, or guards, the Emperor Napoleon came along the avenue. He was dressed with black overcoat, and a hat which was of a fashion of his own. The points of his mustache looked particularly sharp, and his eyes were Political Complication.—A question which, as it concerns the integrity of the Dominion of St. Patrick, is intimately bound up with the independence of the Church. Although decidedly in favor of a foreign sovereign, his Majesty's Government have disposed to enter into the path of reform on condition that the integrity of the States of the Church is guaranteed. The Paris correspondent of the London Post writes:—"The French Government, I have every reason to believe, has sent a telegraphic despatch to the French army in Italy, requesting the commander-in-chief to be ready to evacuate Italy within 24 hours, yet I do not think the Emperor will withdraw his troops even if the people of Central Italy vote for independence." The same authority asserts that the foreign relations of France were already undergoing a great change, and Austrian influences were in the ascendant.

Savoy Question.—Proclamations by the government of Savoy were posted up in all the provinces in that country, notifying that the inhabitants will not be bound to vote upon the question of the maintenance of the union with Sardinia or annexation to France according to the form prescribed by Parliament.

The London Telegraph positively affirms that a formal and confidential request has been made to England to join with Prussia and Russia in protecting against the alienation of Savoy from Sardinia, and states that England supports the demand of Sardinia to ascertain the wishes of the people of Savoy and Aosta by universal suffrage.

ITALY.

The Military Gazette of Turin states that the whole army of Sardinia is ordered to be put upon a war footing by the first of April, and that Piedmont is about to secure a number of rifle barrels from the English armory.

Meeting of Magistrates.

The annual adjourned General Court of Quarter Sessions for the United Counties of York and Peel, was held in the Court-house yesterday afternoon, for the purpose of appointing County Constables, and for the transaction of other business. There was a very large attendance of Magistrates, Reeves, and Deputy Reeves.

Upon the motion of Colonel Denison, seconded by Mr. F. H. Howard, Colonel Thompson, was called to the chair.

The meeting then proceeded to the appointment of Constables, and several additions and alterations were made.

THE PRINCE OF WALES.

Mr. F. H. Howard moved that, as it is now ascertained beyond a doubt that His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will honor Canada with a visit early in the ensuing summer, he resolved, that in order to receive His Royal Highness in a fitting and royal manner in these United Counties of York and Peel, a committee be appointed in order to draw up an address to His Royal Highness, to tender him a hearty welcome, as well as to express their thanks to Her Majesty for affording an opportunity to their United Counties of doing homage to their apparent to the Throne of Great Britain and Ireland, and to testify, through His Royal Highness, their loyal attachment to her throne and person.

Mr. T. J. O'Neil had much pleasure in seconding the motion.

The Chairman then put the motion, and it was carried by acclamation.

A committee, composed of the following gentlemen, was then appointed to draft the address, and present the same to His Royal Highness:—The Warden of the County (David Reesor, Esq.), Colonel Thompson, Colonel Denison, Colonel Bridgford, R. Lewis, Esq., J. H. Howard, Esq., and T. J. O'Neil, Esq.

DIVISION COURT.

Mr. Starratt moved, seconded by Mr. Chambers, that four Division Courts be established in the County of Peel, instead of three at the present time. Also, in his intention for moving the resolution was to accommodate many of the inhabitants of the County of Peel, who, at the present time, were under the necessity of traveling 10 or 18 miles to the Division Court.

Mr. W. A. Norris moved, in amendment, seconded by Mr. Crawford, that a Division Court be established in Scarborough. Last, Mr. William Smith moved, in amendment, seconded by Mr. R. Marshall, that a Division Court be established at Aurora. Last.

Mr. William Hanna moved, in amendment seconded by Mr. Mulligan, that there be no alteration whatever in the Division Courts at present.

A long and noisy discussion of so finally the yeas and nays were demanded, which ended in the amendment being carried Yeas 88; nays 28.

APPOINTMENT OF HIGH CONSTABLE.

Mr. Rice Lewis moved, seconded by Captain Armstrong, that Mr. Wm. Higgins, be appointed High Constable for the current year. The motion was carried.

Mr. F. H. Howard moved, seconded by Mr. Perria, that the salary of the High Constable for the current year be £100.

Mr. W. Dutton thought it was a very unfair thing indeed for the City to impose a person on the Counties Council that was utterly useless to them. He thought the office, with much propriety, could be done away with.

Mr. Ward said it would be impossible to do without a High Constable. Mr. Higgins proved himself to be a most useful official, and he did not think it was treating him with fairness, after a servitude of forty years to call his usefulness into question. Mr. Higgins had rendered good service during the sitting of the Assizes his time was greatly occupied, and he did enough about the Court to merit his salary.

Mr. James moved in amendment that Mr

Higgins' salary be £50 instead of £100. This amendment was lost, and the original motion carried.

The meeting then adjourned.—Colonel.

How THEY LOOKED.—The day on which the reply to the speech was carried up was, says the correspondent of the Herald, a very weeping one, and it would be hard to conceive of more dreary spectacles than that of the "point grey, underdressed seigniors" of the Upper House, and afterwards the honorable Members of Canada, returning from Government House, after the presentation of the address to His Excellency. The march took of a colder brilliant in the rain; the hon. speakers were decidedly drizzle tails; as to the individual legislators, umbrellas hardly saved them from the familiarity of the comparison with drowned rats, which suggested itself to all spectators.

TORONTO MARKETS.

Thursday, March 29th.

The near approach of the time when navigation will be once more opened has caused farmers to bring out much of their remaining grain, and the hope of realizing the high prices which obtained early last week. The effect was to reduce very materially the rates, and the fall was not checked until the supplies once more became small.

The deliveries of wheat were very low last week, but this week have fallen off again. The prices at present figures are:
